Beginning of Regiment's
Two Weeks in Gamp.

Impediately after the first mess a fire broke out in the kitchen of the Medical Corps, owing to a short circuit in the wires of the camp electric lighting system. The camp was thrown into darkness, the fire gong tolled, the entire camp was in commotion and scores of excited, permotion and scores of excited permotions. CAMP NORTON, Peekskill, N. Y.

June 15.—The 69th Regiment has settled down for two weeks, work at the followed with the hose cart and 300 more ran wildly in the rear. While these amateur firemen were looking for the blaze, a few less excitable individuals put it out with two buckets of water. The incident put every one
